

“Foreign Exchange Management”

Dear ESMA Members,

ESMA will host a 1 Day “Seminar on the subject of Foreign Exchange Management” on the 23rd May ‘18 which will be located at the Sheraton Hotel, Zaventem Airport, Brussels – the Sheraton Hotel is located just 39 steps from the front entrance of the Airport so no onward travel required, the Seminar will run from 10.30am to 16.00pm thus allowing participants the opportunity to fly in and out on the same day if necessary.

More and More of our Members experience challenges surrounding the volatility of the Global Currency Markets which in turn could lead to currency exposure and in some instances a Loss of Business and or Profit.

Attendees to this very important Seminar will have the opportunity to meet and learn from Leading Experts in the Field of Foreign Exchange – Bank Santander continues to be a very supportive Business Partner of ESMA and has agreed to host this Seminar – some of the topics which will be covered during the day as follows:

- Market and currency overview
- Some potential forecasts
- Currency dealing and how to mitigate fluctuations

This is now your opportunity to come and learn from Key Experts in the field of Foreign Exchange Management – during the course of this Seminar we shall take questions from the floor and also try and answers concerns you may have within your respective businesses.

Should you find the information you wish to discuss is of a Confidential or Sensitive nature, we shall arrange a private meeting room to facilitate your needs.

Cost of Workshop

- The cost of the Foreign Exchange Seminar is €200 per registered delegate which includes, Tea & Coffee breaks and Lunch
